

Paudex,

Thursday, March 8th

Dear,

I, the undersigned Michel Poletti, President of the International Trail Running Association, certify that the Russian Trail Running Association is a member of ITRA as an institutional member.

According to our statutes, institutional members are IAAF Members or any other entity given responsibility for Trail-Running, in a given country, by the aforementioned IAAF Member or an association approved by ITRA if the IAAF Member is not involved or interested. There can only be one institutional member per country.

Michel Poletti,

President of the International Trail Running Association
